During your Crowd Survey, you can quickly add a new question to your Discussion Guide by clicking, "New Question".

3 of 5

The questions that are live will appear at the top of the screen. There, you can see how long your Crowd Survey has lasted and the amount of participants in the Crowd Survey. At the top of a question, you can click on the percentage of participation and see who hasn't responded to the question. You can see your participants' responses by using the caret aligned with "Participant Responses".

4 of 5

You can close your question by using the ellipsis button and clicking "Close". A question will also close if you chose to "Send" a new question.
